It is true the National Guards' appropriation is a continuing one, and sot in this account, and it cannot by law exceed $900,000 for the two years. Here, then, in all is a total of $11,850,001, and not $12,977,000, as would appear from the figures which are quoted as given out by the Governor. In his estimates of receipts the income from nearly every source is put at ridiculously low figures. Take, for instance, the item of capital stock tax, which for the two years he places at $2,100,000 as available for the general fund. This, I take it, refers to the three-fourths of that tax which bereafter, if the revenue bill is signed, will go into the general fund, and would be equivalent to an estimate of that tax of $1,333,000 per annum. As a matter of fact, the facal officers of the State have already put their estimate higher than that, and the revenues from this accuracy have during the past five years exceeded $1,75,1000 per annum and will be equal to that for the current fiscal year and the next year, Our committe had the information from the finance all officer of the State during the next two years would be nearer $14,000,000 than $12,000,000. BUSINESS GAINS OVER LAST YEAR

There was nothing in the business situation last week to require special notice. Trading in all the leading commodities was of good volume. In the speculative markets stocks were dull and prices slightly shaded. The sales aggregated 8,897 shares. Petroleum put on a burst of activity and moved on a higher level of values. It closed steady. Sales of iron were fair, but prices were still unsatisfactory. Business in mortgages fell off somewhat as compared with previous weeks. The number placed on record was 184, representing $327,000. The largest was for $63,000, placed yesterday. Real estate was active. Several important deals were closed up. The number of transfers recorded was 247, and the amount of money involved $599.188. The prospect is for a good trade all summer and a boom in the fall. There was a report on Fourth avenue yesterday that the McKelvy farm, above Edgewood, had been sold to a syndicate of East Enders for about $3,000 an acre. Nobody seemed to know anything definite about it, but some were disposed to think there was good foundation for the report, as the property has several times recently been mentioned in connection with a deal of some kind. It is well located, conrenient to both Edgewood and Swissvale, and f sub-divided and put on the market it would no doubt be quickly bought up. The tract contains 50 or 60 acres.

There was an encouraging degree of activity in the building trade last week. The number of permits taken out was 56. The total cost of the bouses is estimated at $149,680. The largest permit was issued to the St. Augustine Church congregation for a two-story brick thilding to cost $25,360. The next largest was taken out by Mrs. Calvin for five two-story brick houses or Poplar alley, near Elm street, in the Seventh ward. As usual, the majority of the permits were for dwellings. There is no doubt that Pittaburg is growing.

The feeling in favor of widening Diamond street is making good headway, notwithstand-ing the objections of a few of the property holders. Those who affect to think that the proposed improvement would ruin them can sell immediately, for cash, at 50 per cent more than their property was worth 60 days ago, by calling on Black & Baird, Fourth avenue. This offer will hold good long enough to permit all objectors to avail themselves of its terms. A proposition so broad and fair, and involving so uch money, could be made only on the assumption well founded in this case, that the improvement would more than double values on the thoroughfare in question. It is the strongest argument the wideners have brought gious should bear this in mind.

—Colonel John Rowan, accompanied by field and staff officers of the Seventh Regiment, and comrades from Legions Nos. 7, 10 and 19, paid a fraternal visit to Keystone Legion No. 3 on Thur-day evening last. There was a large attendance and the meeting was quite interesting. to bear upon the subject. When money talks, people listen. Within a few days there has been quite a reival in the real estate market, sales being almost as numerous as at any previous time this season. This is no doubt due to the abundance of idle capital, for which the owners can find no other equally safe and profitable investment. Money thus placed can be made available almost any time, and nearly always at a handsome gain. All resales re-cently made have been at an advance over the original price. The demand is confined to no particular section, but extends to both cities and suburbs, and embraces all descriptions of property-unimproved tracts having the call. A countryman standing at the corner of Fifth avenue and Smithfield street yesterday re-marked: "Those cabs look well. If I knew —On next Thursday evening (Decoration Day), Branch 38 will hold an open meeting at them I believe I would engage one and see the city. I don't like to trust the price to the driver; he would very likely make it pretty steep." This was business, and the hint should be taken by the cab owners. If the price per trip, hour and day were conspicuously posted on some portion of the vehicle so that it could

Two or three weeks ago it was stated in this lepartment of THE DISPATCH that an important sale of real estate had just occurred, and the property was described as "situated on a hill between the two rivers." It turns out to have been what is known as Ruch's Hill, and comprises about 25 acres. The price paid was $100,000, and the purchasers are Booth & Flinn. It is rich in clay of a fine quality, which the new owners will use for brick-making, after which the land will be subdivided and put on the market. The deal was made through the firm of Black & Baird.

The oil market yesterday was strong at the opening, but eased off during the day and closed at a decline. There was some scarcity to no ities to commodity, loans being made early at influence in sustaining prices. Trading was of moderate proportions.

The market opened at 84%, but was soon hammered down to 83% from which point it rallied and sold up to 84%, the best figure of the day. The bears then made a raid and succeeded in reducing the quotation to 83% but they couldn't hold it down, and the next move was to 84. After this the market lost some of its grip and receded to 83% recovering slightly, and closing at 83% with a prospect of selling lower to-morrow.

steep." This was business, and the hint should be taken by the cab owners. If the price per trip, hour and day were conspicuously posted on some portion of the vehicle so that it could be seen and read by everybody it would be a great benefit to the; public, strangers especially, who have a holy horror of Jehus, and would no doubt draw custom. As a business suggestion it is sufficiently important to be given a trial.

THEY MOVED UP. Reaction in Stocks Galuing Force-St. Pan Leads in Point of Activity-Other Good Fentures-A Strong Wind-Up at Best Prices. New York, May 25.-The stock market was again very active this morning, and it developed the same strong tone which has character ized it during the past few days, and prices at the close were the highest for the week. The extreme doubt as to the length to which the reaction begun yesterday would extend made the opening this morning quite ragged, though the only marked changes from last evening's figures were declines. The market hesitated the only marked changes from last evening's figures were declines. The market hesitated for a short time under the continuance of the realizations, but the buying was of the same excellent character that has prevailed of late, and the temporary weakness in a few shares quickly disappeared.

The animation in the market was not so marked during the prevalence of the hesitation, but later the activity became very great, and with the Grangers in the lead everything moved up materially. In the regular list Burlington, Rock laiand and Atchison, and, later, Northwestern, were most prominent for strength, and all of them advanced over 1 percent, though a portion of the improvement in Atchison was lost before the close. The trust stocks were also again very prominent in the trading, and the Lead Trust took the lead, followed by Cotton Oil, the latter touching 58%. A silent reaction was made toward il o'clock, but the upward movement was quickly resumed and continued without further setback until the close, which was active and strong at the highest prices of the day. St. Paul led the list in point of activity, but its final gain was a fraction only. The final changes are almost invariably in the direction of higher figures. Burlington and Rock Island rose 1% per cent each and Northwestern 1 per cent.

Railroad bonds were active, the sales aggregating $1.161,000. Of this amount the Ft. Worth and Denver firsts contributed $168,000, and Denver and Eio Grande Western certificates $162,000. The market was strong, but the market advances were in spots, while the general list was but slightly changed. The important list was but slightly changed.

CHICAGO, May 25 .- An interesting con-

in Judge Jamieson's court next Monday, was suddenly stopped to-day. Attorneys Moses and Newman, about two weeks ago began a suit in the United States Court against Charles Catlin, receiver of the big jewelry house of Clapp & Davis, and a number of judgment creditors. About 75 New York creditors were pushing the case. This morning Receiver Catlin's attorneys asked Judge Jamieson for an order on Moses and Newman to compel them to dismiss the suit against the receiver, who had been appointed by the Court, and in the event of a refusal to haul him up for a contempt of court in beginning a suit in the United States Court against a receiver appointed by a Judge of the Circuit Court.
